Monumental & Lawn Burials

Choosing the right way to honour a loved one's passing isn't easy. At Eastern Suburbs Memorial Park, we're dedicated to helping you make the right decisions, in beautiful and lovingly tended surroundings.

Burials have a long and proud tradition in many cultures and religions in our society. Our diverse, local community has been welcomed into our beautiful parklands since 1893, with a range of burial options to suit different needs.

We find many people seek solace among special communities on this final journey. Selecting a burial position near to those of a fellow culture or creed and adhering to traditions that have been handed down for generations can be a great comfort. Eastern Suburbs Memorial Park's caring staff are here to help you choose the place that is special to you and your loved one.

General Lawn

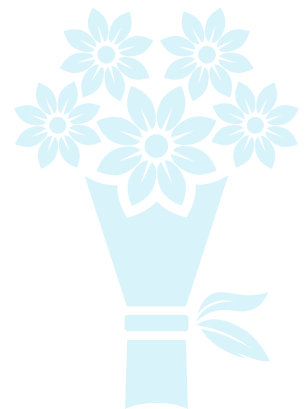

Our General Lawn positions give you the chance to create a lasting memorial that is simple and tasteful. We have a range of sites to choose from, with pleasant views overlooking the cemetery and Botany Bay beyond.

General Lawn positions are laid out in rows, with each plot able to hold up to two interments, as well as ashes. With the help of monumental masons, your memorial tablet will be made from quality granite, etched with the name and details of your loved one, as well as a small inscription as you choose.

Please ask us to show you the General Lawn positions and talk you through the process.

Remember your loved one among peaceful, well-tended lawns

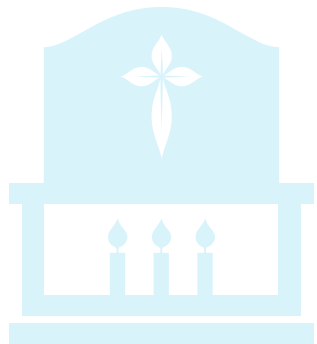

Lawn Candilli

Elegant and symbolic, Candilli monuments are very popular with parts of our Orthodox community, allowing you to place photographs, candles and other meaningful objects with your loved one.

Our Park offers dedicated Lawn Candilli Sections, a perfect place to create a symbolic memorial. Each plot may hold up to two interments.

You're free to retain the services of a monumental mason to create and install your Candilli monument.

Monumental Lawn

Should you wish to remember your loved one with a special monument, our Monumental Lawns provide scope for your vision, within certain parameters. We have several beautiful spots to choose from and we're more than happy to assist in your special location.

Keeping the family together can be an important factor in choosing a burial, and Monumental Lawns allow you up to two interments and up to four cremation remains.

You can arrange your own monument by retaining the services of a monumental mason. They will help provide practical information to make sure the work meets Eastern Suburbs Memorial Park's requirements.

Full Monumental

Large and imposing, Full Monumentals are characterised by full-length cover stones as well as elaborately carved and decorated headstones, to give full voice to your family's loss. Full Monumental graves are traditional forms of burial, and Eastern Suburbs Memorial Park has many fine examples to help you shape your ideas.

We have several locations for Full Monumental graves, and each allows for up to two interments as well as up to four cremated remains.

Seek out the services of a monumental mason to create your special place. We also ask that your mason completes and installs the Monument as soon as practical, before the first anniversary of burial, so your memorial is there for you, family and friends, as quickly as possible.

The mason you choose will provide practical information to make sure the work to the monument meets the Park's requirements.
